

Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Last updated: 12 September 2025

Limehouse Films Ltd is committed to preventing acts of modern slavery and human trafficking within our business and supply chain. We recognise our responsibility to act ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships.

Our business

Limehouse Films Ltd is a UK based B2B creative communication agency providing services to corporate clients. We operate primarily in the United Kingdom.

Our commitment

We are committed to:

- Ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our business or supply chains.
- Acting ethically and with integrity in all our relationships.
- Implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to prevent modern slavery.

Supply chain

While our supply chain is relatively low risk, we take steps to ensure that our suppliers and contractors uphold the same high standards, including:

- Working only with reputable suppliers.
- Where appropriate, seeking confirmation of their own modern slavery compliance measures.

Policies and training

We maintain internal policies that reflect our commitment to ethical business practices. Where relevant, we provide training to employees to ensure they understand the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking and can identify potential concerns.

Reporting concerns

We encourage all employees, suppliers, and contractors to report any concerns related to modern slavery or human trafficking. Concerns can be reported confidentially to hello@limehouse.tv

Review

This statement will be reviewed annually and updated as necessary to reflect our ongoing commitment.

Approved by:

Nick Howard, Managing Director, Limehouse Films Ltd
